FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STATE POLICE INVESTIGATE THREATENING COMPLAINT

Today Tuesday 06/07/05 at approximately 1:25 p.m. Connecticut State Police Troopers assigned to Troop- H and State Police Major Crime Squad Detectives responded to a threatening complaint that was received at the Office Of Healthcare Access located at 410 Capital Ave in Hartford. CT.

Initial investigation at the scene determined that a state employee at the Healthcare Access Office had taken a telephone call from a male subject. The male caller verbally expressed displeasure with an apparent decision that had been made and the caller then spoke of blowing up or causing damage to the building.

At approximately 2:00 p.m. a second call was received at another State Office. This call was received at the Office of Policy and Management (OPM) that is located at 450 Capital Ave in Hartford. A state employee took a call from a male caller who spoke about displeasure with a decision that was made and the caller then spoke about blowing up or causing damage to that building.

A criminal investigation was initiated in both incidents. Numerous witnesses were interviewed at both locations. State Police Detectives have developed leads and information in both cases. Detectives are continuing both investigations.
